

I am in opposition to the "no call" option being altered. I would continuously get solicitation calls, regardless of the hour of the day. The "no call" zone has made life a LOT more bearable without these annoying calls. There are some areas that we, as states, need to make our own governing decisions and this is one of them--the FCC needs to leave well enough alone when it comes to Indiana!

Thank you for your time!